When:

Dear GAL Family,

This year the Florida Guardian ad Litem Foundation is trying something new! We are hosting a Non-profit Seminar in conjunction with our Annual Volunteer Awards Reception at the DCF Summit in September 2012 and we want you to be a part of it!

Our goal is to facilitate the communication efforts between the Florida GAL Foundation and the local non-profits throughout the state of Florida. We all share the same goal of providing assistance to Florida's children that have been abused, abandoned, and neglected. Working together is key for the success of the GAL Program.

This seminar will provide a venue for networking and sharing of best practices as well as a panel of experts that will lead discussions about issues relevant to non-profits. By the close of the seminar we plan to have a formalized communication plan for our non-profit GAL family so that we may work more a
